

Get Over “Being Different” Build a Bridge to Tomorrow

Sustainabridge

We wish the people of Myanmar happiness and aim to contribute for healthy economic growth and peace building by being bridge as our role so that Myanmar people could overcome issues caused by differences in ethnicity, religion and community among Myanmar peoples.

Contact

 No. 9, U Lu Ni Street, Kye Myin Daing Township, Yangon

 +95-1-2301241  info@sustaina-bridge.org  <https://sustaina-bridge.org>

 <https://www.facebook.com/sustainabridge/>

 <https://twitter.com/sustainabridge>  <https://www.instagram.com/sustainabridge/>

ASPIRING TO POVERTY ALLEVIATION AND REDRESS INEQUALITY THROUGH TECHNICAL/VOCATIONAL TRAINING

Focusing on the negative aspects of economic liberalization, we encourage young people living in border area to be able to earn income by having a marketable skill. We believe that poverty alleviation and redress inequality contribute to peace and sustainable stability.

Technical Training School in Hpa-an

The Hpa-an Technical Training school has been providing technical training to those in the region who are young and have not had educational opportunities. The technical training is offered in 4 courses: "automobile maintenance", "Electric", "welding", and "Construction". Each 1 course lasts 5.5 months (660h) and is offered twice a year.

Vocational Training center in Laykaykaw

The Laykaykaw vocational Training Center is under construction and scheduled to open in October 2020. Laykaykaw in Myawadi Township is located, has been deeply scarred by long-lasting conflict in the country. The school here targets local victims of the conflict to provide vocational training, though which we aim at engaging in reconstruction assistance.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

Achievement for SDGs

Under the philosophy of "No one will be left behind", 17 goals are set as important guidelines for the international community to eliminate poverty and achieve a sustainable society by 2030. We believe that the Sustainabridge's activities should actively pursue this goal and contribute to the achieving it.